

MY STORY

Over the course of my first career, I lived and worked as an educator. My post-retirement creations include convening conversations of change and possibility. I am building community through sharing reflective stories of the road and exploring questions of identity and passionate possibility as life unfolds. As a truth teller and dream weaver, I am a voice for individuals living through life's transitions.

My New Chapter

As a solopreneur, I am:

- a transition consultant
- an experienced facilitator of spirited intentional conversations
- a purveyor of possibilities toward personal passion and purpose
- a creator of safe space for relating reflective stories of living
- an active wisdom explorer and community builder
- finding my voice through transition with words and music.

Created Offerings

- workshops and mentor programs
- university style courses offered through ElderU at CapilanoU
- a transition journal
- songs and stories of living through transition
- a voiceover CD.

What is your dream?

Tell-A Vision Productions: Our vision is to build a community of individuals living lives of active wisdom. Wit and wisdom towards personal passion and renewal for life's next chapter is the desired outcome.

Client Testimonials:

I found New Chapter: New Life Story to be a fulfilling journey into planning my retirement. Pat is a wonderful guide. She created a route for us with activities and discussion that helped each of us to discover the issues at the heart of our individual paths. Betty, Vancouver

Pat has a special ability to pull the group together from the first session. She creates a relaxed, warm & supportive environment that encourages participants to share comfortably. Dorothy, North Vancouver

Pat really is a very special woman who understands the challenges of finding a new life when all the old roles and demands fall away. Pat is the perfect person to support any woman wanting to travel along a new path of creativity and learning. L. Konings, Vancouver
