

Tellers All

Tell me of you.
Tell me of me.
In the still and silent space.
Sitting at the fire
we learn; teller and listener are intertwined in time.
Breathing, attending,
Listening, holding Stories.

Soul drinks from links
to our common voice:
how we came to be,
how we made our mark,
how we connect with others.
Tellers hold the space;
help the human family.
Illumination
Creation
Destiny Stories.

Wrapped in a web of delight emotions overflow
Into the river of life.
We see our endless lives
through inflections, humor.
Narrative provides the path:
Shared and individual -
each with a journey,
all with an intention.
We participate,
breathe,
remember.

Nourished, we continue Touched, we understand
Enwrapped, we fly free.
The choice.
The voice.
The teller.
